It Starts at the Top — Are You Leading the Cultural Change in Preventing Workplace Harassment?

Harassment free workplaces that respect all workers are more successful, have better retention rates and increase an employer's ability to recruit and hire the most qualified workers.

By January 1, 2021, California Employers with five or more employees must comply with Harassment training requirements.

Learn more about the Mandatory California Harassment Prevention Training with CalChamber, the HR expert and business advocate that has worked to make California a better place to live, work, and do business.

How are you attracting and retaining talent at your workplace?

"For small-business owners, the importance of employee benefits is a significant factor when it comes to attracting and retaining talent. To stay competitive through an economic downturn, it's important to focus your limited resources on the types of employee benefits that matter most to your workers."
